Molly Smith, "Whether"
Kate Werble Gallery, 83 Vandam Street
Opening Friday, May 21, 6-8 p.m.

After two shows at TriBeCa's K. S. Art (which is currently showing pleasantly sloppy paintings and sculptures by Sonic Youth bassist Kim Gordon), sculptor Molly Smith returns for round three, this time at Kate Werble. In Wing, Smith teases its title object out of some cracked plastic and a bag of cement, while Loop sees her using equally economic means -- a bag of cement and a wire -- in pursuit of just that. You could call Smith's work minimalist, but the sumptuousness of her textures and the shameless effervescence of their colors betray the emptiness of that label.
