PAPER CHASE

KEN JOHNSON

APRIL 23, 2004

This entertaining show of things made of paper, organized by Renne Riccardo, includes Jon Rosenbaum's miniature, intricately detailed fantasy constructions; Charlene Liu's delicately visionary landscapes of cut paper and water color; Molly Smith's wryly simplified sculptures of a waterfall and a big blue drip leaking from a hole in the wall; Doug Morris's intensely patterned symmetrical reliefs; and Koji Shimizu's toylike, papier-mache sculptures of industrial vehicles.
