

NEW YORK

To Do: See "All Over the Moon"

Jerry Saltz

August 5, 2018

Abstraction at its best.

This great gallery's summer show, curated by artist Jack Pierson, is breathtaking and features three soon-to-be first-rank painters: Laurel Sparks, Lily Stockman, and Richard Tinkler. Sparks and Stockman are stellar colorists, and Tinkler's lit-up, loosely geometric canvases radiate visionary intelligence that transforms into optical magic carpets to expansive shores.

Cheim & Read, 547 West 25th Street, through August 30.